Claudia (Pilate's Wife) in \"Tenebrae\" Good Friday service 2016
 Claudia Wife Of Pontius Pilate
 Pontius Pilate's wife is the unnamed spouse of Pontius Pilate, who appears only once in the Gospel of Matthew, where she intercedes with Pilate on Jesus' behalf. It is uncertain whether Pilate was actually married, although it is likely. In later tradition, she becomes known as Procula or Procla and plays a role in various New Testament Apocrypha. At a later date, she acquires the name Claudia Procula in Western tradition, as well as other names and variants of these names. She is venerated as a Pontius Pilate's wife - Wikipedia
 The name, Claudia, is mentioned another time in scripture as a follower of Christ. However, she is not identified as Pontius Pilate's wife and, therefore, we cannot assume Pilate's wife was a believer. Also, there is no record of the couple having children together. That being said...the story is captivating and interesting.
 Claudia, Wife of Pontius Pilate: A Novel: Amazon.co.uk ...
 Life is dangerous for Claudia, granddaughter of Ceasar Augustus. Taken to the palace at a young age she is soon married off to Pontius Pilate, the governor of Judea. There she learns about the Christ and becomes a secret follower. Even she is devastated at her husband's part in His death she tries to be a supportive wife.
 Claudia, Wife of Pontius Pilate by Diana Wallis Taylor
 Very little, except that she was high-born, Roman, well-educated and wealthy - and the wife of the Roman governor, Pontius Pilate, at the time of Jesus' death. On the morning of the trial of Jesus, she sent an urgent message to her husband: 'I had a troubling dream. Do not have anything to do with this man.'

 The WIFE of PONTIUS PILATE: she tried to save Jesus ...
 Claudia Procula was a Roman princess and the wife of Pontius Pilate, the man who ordered Jesus Christ to be crucified. Throughout the history of Christendom, Pontius Pilate has been despised. When the Church became Roman, the Jews, it was said, drove Pilate to execute Jesus and it was all the fault of the Jews that Jesus was tortured.
 Claudia Procula, Friend of Mary Magdalene - BOOK - I write ...
 Claudia Procula, according to the third-century early Christian sources (including, first of all, the apocryphal Gospel of Nicodemus), was the wife of Pontius Pilate, a Roman governor. She is venerated as a saint by the Greeks of Cappadocia and by the Ethiopian Church, but there is no universal veneration of her.
 Pontius Pilate's Wife / OrthoChristian.Com
 There is a "tradition" that Pontius Pilate's wife Claudia Procula had a dream of billions of people chanting "sub Pontio Pilato" over and over. What she was hearing was the billions of Christians who recite "He was crucified under Pontius Pilate."
