The Law Relating to Estoppel by Representation sellier. european law publ.

Though the revised edition of A Theory of Justice, published in 1999, is the definitive statement of Rawls's view, so much of the extensive literature on Rawls's theory refers to the first edition. This reissue makes the first edition once again available for scholars and serious students of Rawls's work.

The Academy is a prestigious international institution for the study and teaching of Public and Private International Law and related subjects. The work of the Hague Academy receives the support and recognition of the UN. Its purpose is to encourage a thorough and impartial examination of the problems arising from international relations in the field of law. The courses deal with the theoretical and practical aspects of the subject, including legislation and case law. All courses at the Academy are, in principle, published in the language in which they were delivered in the "Collected Courses of the Hague Academy of International Law .

A Discourse Upon the Origin and Foundation of the Inequality Among Mankind W.E. Upjohn Institute
L'objectif de la collection « Le droit en schémas » est de proposer des ouvrages facilitant la compréhension et la mémorisation des questions juridiques. Chaque question est ainsi envisagée selon deux approches juxtaposées : le cours traditionnel en page de gauche, des schémas explicatifs en page de droite. Très didactique, ce manuel de droit des contrats a été conçu à partir de trois choix méthodologiques : la mise en avant des distinctions fondamentales, la reprise des mêmes problèmes sous des angles différents, un effort de mise en perspective afin de faciliter la réflexion et la compréhension des continuités et des ruptures. Il est destiné : aux étudiants de Licence 2 et Master de Droit, aux candidats aux concours d'accès au CRFPA et à l'ENM.

Marxism, Liberalism, and Feminism Editions Ellipses

In this volume, the Study Group and the Acquis Group present the first academic Draft of a Common Frame of Reference (DCFR). The Draft is based in part on a revised version of the Principles of European Contract Law (PECL) and contains Principles, Definitions and Model Rules of European Private Law in an interim outline edition. It covers the books on contracts and other juridical acts, obligations and corresponding rights, certain specific contracts, and non-contractual obligations. One purpose of the text is to provide material for a possible "political" Common Frame of Reference (CFR) which was called for by the European Commission's Action Plan on a More Coherent European Contract Law of January 2003.

The Unidroit Principles of International Contracts, first published in 1994, have met with extraordinary success in the legal and business community worldwide. Prepared by a group of eminent experts from all major legal systems of the world, they provide a comprehensive set of rules for international commercial contracts. This new edition of An International Restatement of Contract Law is the first comprehensive introduction to the Unidroit Principles 2004. In addition, it provides an extensive survey and analysis of the actual use of the Unidroit Principles in practice with special emphasis on the different ways in which they have been interpreted and applied by the courts and arbitral tribunals in the hundred or so cases reported worldwide. The book also contains the full text of the Preamble and the 180 articles of the Unidroit Principles 2004 in Chinese, English, French, German, Italian and Russian as well as the 1994 edition in Spanish.

Coordonné par David Lefrançois, Stéphanie Demers, Marc-André Éthier Préface de Claude Lessard Postface par Maurice Tardif Pourquoi éduquer? Pour qui? Cet ouvrage collectif présente des textes de base sur les fondements mêmes de l'éducation: • l'histoire de l'éducation occidentale, • le rôle de l'école, • les principes des systèmes éducatifs, • le processus d'élaboration des savoirs, • les idéologies sociales dans le cadre scolaire, • le tri social et ses conséquences sur le parcours scolaire, • l'apport de la philosophie à l'éducation, • l'apprentissage et le développement humain, • le développement d'une pensée critique à l'école, • la non-neutralité de l'école québécoise. Si les réponses à toutes les questions ne peuvent être trouvées textuellement dans ces pages, leurs auteurs souhaitent que les enseignantes et enseignants – en formation et en réflexion continues –, ainsi que tous ceux et celles qui s'intéressent à l'éducation, puissent y puiser des éléments leur permettant de construire leurs propres réponses et alimenter leur désir de mieux faire pour le bien commun.

An International Restatement of Contract Law: The UNIDROIT Principles of International Commercial Contracts Edward Elgar Publishing

This collection of essays gathers contributions from leading international lawyers from different countries, generations and angles with the aim of highlighting the multifaceted history of international law. This volume questions and analyses the origins and foundations of the international legal system. A particular attention is devoted to Hugo Grotius as one of the founding fathers of the law of nations. Several contributions further question the positivist tradition initiated by Vattel and endorsed by scholars of the 19th Century. This immersion in the intellectual origins of international law is enriched by an inquiry into the practice of the law of nations, including its main patterns and changing evolution as well as the role of non-western traditions and the impact of colonization. Le présent ouvrage réunit les contributions de juristes internationaux reconnus en vue d'éclairer les multiples facettes de l'histoire du droit international public. L'ouvrage analyse et questionne les origines et les fondements de l'ordre juridique international. Une attention toute particulière est dédiée à Hugo Grotius l'un des pères fondateurs du droit international. D'autres contributions questionnent également la tradition positiviste initiée par Vattel et confortée par la doctrine du 19ème siècle. Cette immersion dans les origines doctrinales du système juridique international est enrichie par l'étude de la pratique du droit international public, son évolution ainsi que le rôle des traditions non-occidentales et l'impact de la colonisation.

Comment repenser le rapport au travail et à l'entreprise au moment où l'Etat se retire des affaires en Afrique ? Telle est la question à laquelle cet ouvrage tente de répondre. A contre-courant des idées reçues, l'auteur ouvre des pistes de réflexion et d'analyse qui constituent une véritable introduction au débat majeur sur la productivité du travail et la compétitivité des entreprises à l'ère de l'économie mondialisée.

Théories modernes sur les origines de la famille de la société et de l'état Editions Ellipses

In September 1999, FIDIC introduced its new Suite of Contracts, which included a "new" Red, Yellow, Silver and Green forms of contract. The "new" Red Book was intended to replace the 1992 fourth edition of the Red Book, with the ambition that its use would cease with time. This ambition has not materialised and is unlikely to do so in the future. Despite the importance of the 1999 Forms, there has been very little published on the new concepts adopted in them and how they interact with the previous forms. This important work considers these aspects together with the many developments affecting the fourth edition of the Red Book that have taken place since 1997, when the second edition of this book was published, and relates them to key contracting issues. It is written by a chartered engineer, conciliator and international arbitrator with wide experience in the use of the FIDIC Forms and in the various dispute resolution mechanisms specified in them. Important features of this book include: · background and concepts of the various forms of contract; · a detailed comparison of the wording of the 1999 three main forms, which although similar in nature; it nevertheless significantly differs in certain areas where the three forms diverge due to their intended purpose; · analysis of the rights and obligations of the parties involved in the contract and the allocation of risks concerned; · a range of 'decision tree' charts, analysing the main features of the 1992 Red Book, including risks, indemnities and insurances, claims and counterclaims, variations, procedure for claims, programme and delay, suspension, payments and certificates, dispute resolution mechanisms, and dispute boards; · a much enlarged discussion of the meaning of "claim" and "dispute" and the types of claim with a discussion of the Notice provision in the 1999 forms of contract for the submittal of claims by a contractor and by an employer; · the FIDIC scheme of indemnities and insurance requirements; and the methods of dispute resolution provided by the various forms of contract; and · five new chapters in this third edition, the first four chapters deal with each of the 1999 forms and the fifth chapter is confined to the topic of Dispute Boards.

L'objectif de la collection "Le droit en fiches et en tableaux" est de proposer des ouvrages facilitant la compréhension et la mémorisation des questions juridiques. Chaque question est ainsi envisagée selon deux approches juxtaposées : le cours traditionnel en page de gauche, des tableaux synthétiques en page de droite. Très didactique, ce manuel de droit des contrats a été conçu à partir de trois choix méthodologiques : la mise en avant des distinctions fondamentales, la reprise des mêmes problèmes sous des angles différents, un effort de mise en perspective afin de faciliter la réflexion et la compréhension des continuités et des ruptures. Il est destiné : aux étudiants en licence et master de droit; aux candidats aux concours d'accès au CRFPA et à l'ENM.

The Social Contract Vrin

In 1944, the International Labour Organization laid out its "Declaration of Philadelphia," a full-fledged social bill of rights in the same spirit as FDR's State of the Union address of the same year. The welfarist spirit was then at its apex-but Supiot argues that with neoliberalism still rampant, even following the economic crash, the Declaration remains an important baseline. Then as now, social ties had been compromised in favor of market values; now, as then, the law must be reorganized to uphold social values and the spirit of solidarity. Short, punchy and often rousing, The Spirit of Philadelphia describes the worldwide triumph of neoliberalism as once-communist elites turn towards market dogma and the privatization of welfare states. Arguing against the return to social Darwinism, and the bureaucratic embrace of numbers and statistics as ends, Supiot champions the social democratic spirit, hoping for its revival in the wake of the recent crash.

The present debate in legal theory is dominated by an unfruitful schism. On the one hand, analytical theories are concerned with the positivity of law, running the risk of missing the law's relation to society. On the other hand, sociological approaches analyze all sorts of social interactions of law, but have developed no conceptual tools to do justice to the autonomy of law. The theory of autopoiesis offers law a chance of getting round the falsely posed alternative between an autonomous rule system or a socially conditioned decision-making process. It is a theory of law that sees the law's autonomy in the self-reproduction of a communication network and understands its relation to society as interference with other autonomous communication networks. Building on the ideas of Humberto Maturana, Heinz von Foerster and Niklas Luhmann, Gunther Teubner uses the concepts of self-organization and autopoiesis to develop a concept of law as a hypercyclically closed social system. This book will stand as a landmark in legal theory and become a standard point of departure in the sociology of law.
