Super Farty Pants! Wickwick

Roscoe, a seasoned circus dog, is growing old. Tricks he once performed with ease are getting difficult. Luckily the new puppy, Rolly, is a quick learner. She helps out her old friend, who is worried that one day he'll get fired from the circus. When a crisis interrupts the Christmas performance, it's up to old Roscoe to save the day! His golden heart and incredibly sensitive nose come in handy. As Roscoe himself says, "I may forget everything else, but I will never forget the smell of a child."

Counting Silly Faces Numbers One to Ten Createspace Independent Pub

A little squirrel announces that he was once very, very, scared and finds out that he is not alone. Lots of little animals went through scary experiences, but they react in different ways. Turtle hides and gets a tummy ache, monkey clings, dog barks, and elephant doesn't like to talk about it. They need help, and they get help from grown-ups who help them feel safe and learn ways to cope with difficult feelings. This story was written to help children and grown-ups understand how stress can affect children and ways to help them.

Once I Was Very Very Scared

Freddy Fumple is not like most other people. For one, he sees things that others can't see. What is more, he likes to ponder upon a very special question: "How far is infinity?" When he and the rest of his family move to an old house out in the country, everything is about to change. Soon Freddy is on the verge of discovering a world beyond his wildest dreams. A world that desperately needs his help. An adventurous place where he finally can get an answer to his giant question. Providing, of course, his neighbor doesn't make stew out of him first. And that he manages to help the confused ghost which is poltergeisting his new room. And avoids being devoured by the terrifying mindmonsters.
