Maryland Reports Aspen Publishing
The book has been written for 'Business Laws' Paper of the MBA Programme, Semester-II examination of the Gautam Buddh Technical University in accordance with its new syllabus, effective from the academic year 2013-14. Its contents have been largely extracted from the author's reputed title 'Business Legislation for Management' which has gained tremendous readership over the years. This book presents the subject matter tailor-made, as per the revised course structure of the Paper, to enable the students to possess a textbook which caters to their needs in full. The book has been organized into six units, namely, Law of Contract,

Law of Partnership and Law of Sale of Goods, Law of Negotiable Instruments, Company Law and Law of Consumer Protection, Law of Information Technology, and Law of Right to Information.
Key Features
• Quotes Indian and English cases at appropriate places with a view to ensure necessary authenticity and clarity on the subject. • Includes text questions and practical problems with hints and solutions in each chapter to enable students to evaluate their understanding of the subject

- Explains complicated provisions in easily comprehensible language with the help of illustrations and analogies

Probate court proceedings after a death can drag out and cost tens of thousands of dollars in attorney and court fees—money that would otherwise have gone directly to your loved ones. This topselling guide shows you the most effective ways to skip the probate process:

- name payable-on-death beneficiaries for financial accounts
- own property jointly
- leave real estate with transfer-on-death deeds
- use a living trust
- name the right beneficiaries for IRAs, 401(k)s, and other retirement plans, and • use probate shortcuts for small estates. Completely updated, this edition includes the latest state laws on probate avoidance methods, and covers all the estate-related impacts of the recent changes to federal rules on retirement distributions. ACTEC Notes Viking Adult 12th edition United States Statutes at Large NOLO This casebook introduces students to the principles of estate planning and challenges them to analyze simulated client scenarios. Featuring a case-study and problems approach in which the principles of estate planning are first introduced and then demonstrated through student analysis of short exercises and simulated client situations. A forms supplement on a CD is an additional tool for giving students practice with drafting exercises. How to Settle Your Living Trust Sweet & Maxwell "Robert A. Esperti and Renno L. Peterson taught Americans how to properly plan for themselves, their spouses, their children, their grandchildren, and charities in their landmark book, Loving Trust. In this new book, The Living Trust Revolution, they offer a point-by-point comparison of wills and living trusts that debunks the commonly held beliefs that wills better serve average Americans and that they can reasonably accommodate their estate planning needs. There are shocking deficiencies in the American legal system's approach to estate planning; The Living Trust Revolution exposes them and tells readers what they can do now to avoid problems - and probate - later on." "The Living Trust Revolution is written in clear, straightforward language and specifically addresses the anxieties most of us have about protecting ourselves, our assets, and our loved ones from unreasonable fees, red tape, and putting ourselves under the control of nonfamily members." "Authoritative and deeply reassuring, The Living Trust Revolution empowers readers to care for their loved ones now - and keep on caring for them in the future - with new confidence."--

Bloomsbury Publishing Succession law is the law governing the devolution of property on the death of its owner. This new book provides peerless analysis of this branch of law with extensive cross-referencing to related issues such as tax, conveyancing, family law, enduring powers of attorney, limitation of actions, estate accounts, private international law and trusts. It provides the reader with in-depth coverage of key Irish judgments, statutes, court rule provisions and Court and Probate Officer practice directions. The coverage is supplemented with Court Rule prescribed forms and many non-prescribed drafted forms, titles to grants of representation and checklists, which all readers will find invaluable aids to understanding and applying succession law in practice. This highly practical book includes a chapter on will drafting and estate planning and provides 10 precedent templates covering most testator requirements: Precedent 1: All to spouse, and should spouse not

survive testator by 30 days, all to two children, as substituted residuary legatees and devisees – where child predeceases, gift over to any children of predeceased child alive at date of death of deceased Precedent 2: Residue to children equally, who are minors at date of execution of will Precedent 3: Article 22 EU Succession Regulation choice of law clause, professional executor	charging clause and various devises and bequests Precedent 4: Joint devise and various attestation clauses depending on disability of Testator Precedent 5: Demonstrative and charitable legacies and life and remainder interests Precedent 6: Will leaving legal right share to spouse with life estate of residue to spouse and special power of appointment amongst	children of testator Precedent 7: Wills - one dealing with estate of the testator in the State only and the other dealing with his estate outside the State Precedent 8: Precedent Codicils Precedent 9: Trust Precedent 10: Discretionary Trust The book's appendices, too, contain a wealth of practical information such as: * Draft precedent titles for grants of
