The Second Edition of this highly acclaimed book on business ethics discusses the way in which individuals deal with conflicting questions of personal and professional ethics. While retaining all the features of the first edition which made it a unique contribution to the field, this version adopts a more explicitly pragmatic and optimistic framework, while incorporating suggestions received from scholars around the world. R C Sekhar has also added many new features to make the book more accessible to students and to assist the learning process.

Satguru Sivaya Subramuniyaswami, a living legend, yoga master and author of Merging with Siva, recognized the immense value of the Tirukural in 1949 as a young seeker in Sri Lanka. Decades later, he instructed two of his swamis to translate it from classical Tamil into American English, and had an renowned artist in South India illustrate the 108 chapters. Here is the fruit of those efforts, the gentle, profound world of Asian ethics and simple humanness. Yet, Weaver's Wisdom's universality makes it a book you can share with anyone. It contains fortune cookies you can snack on before sleep or at anytime. Its charming wit and common sense will uplift and inspire you and your whole family.

Athiyaman, a hardened warrior, fearsome to his enemies and magnanimous to those he favoured. Kumanan, a king so benevolent that he was even willing to sacrifice his own life for another. The poet Pisiraandaiyar, who stood by his royal friend Kopperuncholan even in the worst of times. And Avvaiyar, a venerable woman poet, respected by rulers and subjects alike. This colourful and powerful cast of characters comes together in The Prince Who Became a Monk and Other Stories from Tamil Literature. Selected and translated by Sahitya Akademi award-winner M.L. Thangappa, the stories in this volume were originally poems written by famed Tamil poets belonging to a time when kings and poets equalled each other in authority and respect, and when valour and talent were considered the greatest virtues. These tales celebrate family, friendships and bonds that survive the tests of distance and time, bringing to the fore historical figures who depict faith, humility and kindness. Through delicately woven imagery and subtly imparted wisdom, this collection of more than 35 stories brings alive an era of glory, and the poets who immortalized it in their words.

An insightful, entertaining read! These wonderful, heart-warming, true stories from substitute teachers will inspire teachers, parents, and the general public alike. Have you ever wondered what life is like for a substitute teacher? Everyone has had a substitute teacher in their experience as a student. They often do not realize how challenging it can be for a substitute teacher to walk into a new environment, even at a moment's notice. This book highlights substitute teachers' special days and memorable experiences from the bittersweet to the hilarious. Their stories range from the one-room schoolhouse memories to elementary Show and Tell surprises to student antics and the importance of establishing connections with students. The substitute teacher never knows what the day may bring. It is not an easy job, but it is one that is varied and rewarding. Sit back, read, and enjoy a good laugh at the substitute teacher's expense. You will surely see yourself in many of these stories. The COVID-19 poems and artwork are reflections of some substitutes' time of worry, isolation, and belief of a better day to come.

Krishnamurthy (a) Kittu lives in a multistoried apartment at Chennai. A retired Tamil teacher, settled in a remote village, after having lost his wife, moved to his daughter's home at Chennai. Kittu grandpa is fondly addressed by the children in the apartments as 'Story Grandpa' as he used to gather children on Sundays and tell interesting stories with an apparent moral in each and every story. The children, who are generally saddled to mobiles, televisions, video games etc., shun them for a while to surround the grandpa and listen to his mesmerizing stories. In addition to story-telling he used sing songs and requests the children also to sing, dance and play. To keep them aware of green environment he encourages them to plant saplings. His stories were also filled with humor coupled with a touch of humanity. The stories unfolded by Grandpa form the rest of the book.
