Review: A Case of Exploding Mangoes by Mohammed Hanif ... A Case Of Exploding Mangoes A Case of Exploding Mangoes (2008) is a comic novel by the Pakistani writer Mohammed Hanif based on the plane crash that killed General Muhammad Zia ul-Haq, former president of Pakistan. The book won the Best First Book Award in the year 2009 in the Commonwealth Book Prize .A Case of Exploding Mangoes - Wikipedia Hanif's A Case of Exploding Mangoes is part historical fiction, part mystery. A Case of Exploding Mangoes: Mohammed Hanif: 9780307388186 ...About A Case of Exploding Mangoes A Washington Post , Rocky Mountain News , Boston Globe Best Book of the Year Intrigue and subterfuge combine with bad luck and good in this darkly comic debut about love, betrayal, tyranny, family, and a conspiracy trying its damndest to happen. A Case of Exploding Mangoes by Mohammed Hanif ...A Case Of Exploding Mangoes is a Pakistani journalist's extremely witty fictional spin on his country's politics, army (which have, throughout its history, often been the same thing) and its de-facto head of state, General Muhammad Zia-ul-Haq. As one may often note, good fiction is often just a tool to shed light on the truth, and this book, in many ways, does just that. A Case of Exploding Mangoes by Mohammed Hanif A Case of Exploding Mangoes is an explicit critique of the comprador class ruling in Pakistan. Their decisions are dictated by their own politico-economic gains with absolute indifference to the people and their gains. What is comprador class? Comprador class is a term for the natives of a colonized land that are "bought" by the colonizers. A Case of Exploding Mangoes - Summary and Analysis Mohammed Hanif's comic novel A Case of Exploding Mangoes (2008) is based on the true events of the 1988 plane crash that killed the former president of Pakistan, General Muhammad Zia ul-Haq. The story follows Ali Shigri, a junior officer in the Pakistani Air Force, as he seeks to assassinate General Zia in revenge for the death of his father.
