The One From The Other Hachette UK
 “Gross is a top-notch thriller writer.” —Chicago Sun-Times
 “Andrew Gross knows how to make your skin crawl. Eyes Wide Open should be read with the door shut and the lights on; a truly terrifying descent into evil.” —Nelson DeMille New York Times bestselling author Andrew Gross solidifies his position as one of today’s very best suspense authors with Eyes Wide Open. Joining his previous bestsellers The Blue Zone, The Dark Tide, Don’t Look Twice, and Reckless, Eyes Wide Open is another brilliant example of the contemporary thriller done absolutely right. In this relentlessly exciting page-turner, a man must investigate a shattering personal tragedy that is somehow connected with a charismatic cult leader from the ‘60s. James Patterson, Harlan Coben, David Baldacci, John Grisham, Jonathan Kellerman, Jeffery Deaver, Lisa Gardner, Nelson DeMille, Tess Gerritsen—Andrew Gross stands tall in their elite company.
The Cathar Secret HarperCollins
 Stolen gold and forbidden love intertwine in this riveting novel set during the last days of the Third Reich by “a superb writer and a masterful storyteller” (Houston Chronicle). Walter Wolff, an officer in the US Army’s art recovery unit, has been assigned to track down a priceless collection of gold coins stolen from a monastery in Austria. General Eisenhower believes the treasure could be melted down and used to finance the escape plans of high-ranking Nazi officials, including Adolf Hitler’s private secretary, Martin Bormann. So Wolff sets out in pursuit of Bormann’s right-hand man, Rudolf von Zell, the last person known to possess the coins. His only lead is von Zell’s beautiful, enigmatic wife, Konstanze. But as Wolff works to win Konstanze’s trust, he finds himself falling in love with her. As their relationship intensifies, so too does the pressure to fulfill his mission—only at what cost? Inspired by real events involving one of the Monuments Men, The Nazi’s Wife is an “outstanding story” featuring “exceptionally good writing” (The Daily Telegraph).
No Good Deed Simon and Schuster
 When an American tourist is murdered in the Bavarian Alps, Kommissar Franz Waldbaer begins an investigation that yields no suspects or clues, but the arrival of the victim’s brother sends them both on a trail of evil leading to forgotten episodes from the Third Reich.
The Copper Bracelet Macmillan
 Un livret qui relate des événements de la fin du XIIIe siècle et qui évoque une armure d’or forgée pour le chevalier Bruno von Hirschberg par la vertu de la pierre philosophale... fable ou réalité

? Toujours est-il que d’occultes personnages poursuivent encore aujourd’hui la quête de la pierre disparue et que l’ordre très discret de la chevalerie Teutonique est lui-même impliqué. Et voici, par un improbable concours de circonstances, qu’apparaît Hendrik Busske, modeste conseiller d’une société de placements financiers. Modeste, soit, mais non sans ambition. Gourou de la finance ? Et pourquoi pas ? Mais faut-il convoiter l’or du diable ? Au commencement, il y a la soif de l’or... vient ensuite la soif de l’immortalité... puis la soif d’aller plus loin encore...

False Gods: A Historical Thriller L’Atalante
 From bestselling author James Douglas, a gripping and enthralling historical conspiracy thriller - a must read for fans of Dan Brown, James Becker and Chris Kuzneski. READERS ARE LOVING THE DOOMSDAY TESTAMENT! "This is the best book I have read in a long while..." - 5 STARS. "Kept me up very late because I couldn't put it down." - 5 STARS. "Kept me gripped until the end, with twist and turns everywhere..." - 5 STARS.

 * THERE ARE SOME WHO WILL KILL TO FIND THAT WHICH IS LOST... 1937: Hitler sent an expedition to Tibet in search of the lost land of Thule. 1941: Himmler spent a huge fortune, and sacrificed the lives of hundreds to turn Wewelsburg Castle in Germany into a shrine to the SS. 2008: Art recovery expert Jamie Saintclair is astonished to discover that the gentle grandfather he thought he knew was a decorated war hero, serving in the Special Air Service in World War Two. And his grandfather has one more surprise. Sewn into the endpaper of his journal is a strange piece of Nazi symbolism. With this discovery, Jamie is launched on a breathless chase across Europe and deep into Germany's dark past... Jamie Saintclair's adventures continue in The Isis Covenant, The Excalibur Codex and The Samurai Inheritance.

The Doomsday Testament Bonnier Zaffre Ltd.
 Esta magistral novela de suspense, que inaugura la apasionante nueva serie de Gregg Hurwitz, atrapa al lector desde la primera página. Evan Smoak es Nowhere Man, un hombre entrenado para matar sin dejar rastros, que emplea sus talentos y recursos en una misión personal: ayudar a todos cuantos no pueden recurrir a nadie más. También es un hombre con un pasado peligroso. Cuando aún era un niño, Evan fue criado y entrenado como parte de un programa secreto diseñado para crear asesinos perfectos para los servicios de inteligencia. Él era el Huérfano X. Evan rompió con el programa y utilizó todo lo que había aprendido para desaparecer. Ahora, ha descubierto que alguien con talento y un entrenamiento parecido lo está persiguiendo, alguien que empezará a pisarle los talones y que aprovechará su punto débil - su trabajo como Nowhere Man- para encontrarlo y eliminarlo. Reseñas: «Apaga el mundo real y zambúllete en este asombroso inicio de una nueva serie.» Daily Mail «Un gigante del thriller por derecho propio.» Los Angeles Times «Desde su explosivo comienzo, Huérfano X supera a la mayor parte de los thrillers que he leído.» David Baldacci «La mejor novela que ha escrito Hurwitz hasta la fecha.» Lee Child «Un entretenimiento excelente.» The Washington Post «Hurwitz combina la acción trepidante y los artilugios de alta tecnología con un brillante estudio de carácter en este excelente primer libro de una serie.» Publishers Weekly «El thriller más excitante que he leído desde El caso Bourne. Los fans de Jack Reacher, Mitch Rapp y Jason Bourne adorarán a Evan Smoak y el mortífero y secreto mundo del Programa Huérfano.» Robert Crais « Huérfano X es el thriller más intenso y apasionante que he leído enmuchísimo tiempo. Aferraos a vuestro asiento, porque Hurwitz os llevará a un viaje vertiginoso que no olvidaréis.» Tess Gerritsen

Can the Golds solve the unsolvable? Somehow the unassuming Alexander Gold and his wife Norma keep getting mixed up with bizarre, and sometimes dangerous, criminal cases. Becoming increasingly fearful, Norma asks her neighbour Burton about the possibility of sourcing a gun, but instead of coming away with a weapon, the Golds soon find themselves handed another case... Burton soon reveals a mystery that involves Vermeer's Young Girl in a Turban and a woman named Hannelore Becker. Hannelore has recreated Vermeers with such skill and knowledge and love, that museums became involved. And so did Daniel Pereira Belmont: eighty years old and one of the richest men in New York and the supposed owner of the Fine Arts Museum of New York. Norma is suspicious. No one owns a museum that size, but Burton promises that Belmont will reveal all himself the next day. But then the museum's flamboyant director is murdered over his lunch of oysters and champagne. Could the murder and the painting be connected? The Golds find this murder is practically flawless; an unsolvable crime. But something is definitely afoot and just what does Hannelore Becker have to do with it? So begins one of the Golds' most challenging and extraordinary cases as they try to decipher what is mere suspicion and what is far more sinister. The Gold Frame is a fascinating mystery and the third book in the Norma Alexander Gold Thriller series. Herbert Resnicow was a late-blooming author. A civil engineer by training and trade, he changed careers at 60 with his first mystery The Gold Solution. Like his following novels, the plot reflects his long experience in construction. He died on April 5th 1997.

Blood Relative Hachette UK

'One of the greatest anti-heroes ever written' LEE CHILD A series of horrific ritual murders leads Bernie Gunther to an occult conspiracy at the very heart of the Nazi Party - hard-boiled noir thriller for fans of Raymond Chandler and John le Carré Five German schoolgirls are missing. Four have been found dead. But unlike the undesirables who make up the majority of dead and missing people in Hitler's Berlin, these girls were blonde and blue-eyed - the Aryan flower of German maidenhood - and their gruesome deaths recall ritual killings. Busy with a blackmail case, Bernie is reluctant when he is asked to rejoin the Berlin police in order to track down the murderer. But when the person doing the asking is none other than head of the SD, Reinhard Heydrich, it's not exactly a request he can turn down. As Bernie gets closer to the truth, he realises that at the heart of this case is much more than one lone madman - in fact, there is a conspiracy at work more chilling than he could ever have imagined.

Argentina, 1950: Bernie Gunther arrives in Buenos Aires only to be caught up in the hunt for a killer. A young girl has been murdered in circumstances that strongly resemble those of Bernie's final case as a Berlin homicide detective, a case he didn't solve. The local chief of police is convinced that the killer is to be found among the several thousand ex-Nazis who have come to Argentina since 1945. So who better than Bernie Gunther to help track him down?

Out of the Dark Penguin UK

When a missing ancient manuscript is discovered in Rome, Lang Reilly sets out on a dangerous quest to London, Prague, and Rome to find those who would rather kill him than have him reveal its frightening contents. In the secret archives of the Vatican, an ancient Tibetan document has remained hidden to everyone but the highest authorities in the Catholic Church. Those authorities had long ago disposed of the Cathars, the religious sect who'd once attempted to spread the document's heresies of reincarnation. Centuries later, a young boy's bizarre flashbacks as an Auschwitz prisoner threaten to prove the document's theory of reincarnation, shattering the faith of millions around the world. The Church will go to any lengths to protect the scrolls' contents and stop the boy, Wynn-Three, from spreading its heresies. But someone else has beaten them to it with an agenda of their own: the boy's flashbacks may help reveal a long-lost treasure, stashed by the Nazis for safekeeping. Kidnapping Wynn-Three, these criminals take him to the snowy slopes of Germany and Austria in hopes he will lead them to the loot. And ex-CIA agent Lang Reilly may be the only one who can track down his young neighbor, Wynn-Three. With criminals hot on his trail, Reilly races across Europe to rescue the boy. But if he can't pull the missing pieces together and uncover the missing document, Wynn-Three—and the Church's reputation—may both be lost to history. A fast-paced, intriguing thriller, The Cathar Secret enraptures from the controversial beginning until the shocking conclusion.

The Pale Criminal Random House

From the #1 New York Times bestselling author of the Penn Cage series comes a heartstopping thriller about one of the great unsolved mysteries of World War II. The Spandau Diary—what was in it? Why did the secret intelligence agencies of every major power want it? Why was a brave and beautiful woman kidnapped and sexually tormented to get it? Why did a chain of deception and violent death lash out across the globe, from survivors of the Nazi past to warriors in the new conflict now about to explode? Why did the world's entire history of World War II have to be rewritten as the future hung over a nightmare abyss? "Entirely plausible, totally engrossing...a remarkable, impressive novel."—Nelson DeMille "An incredible web of intrigue and suspense, an avalanche of action from first page to last."—Clive Cussler

Brandenburg Harper Collins

Bernie Gunther returns in the thirteenth book in the Sunday Times and New York Times bestselling series, perfect for fans of John le Carré and Robert Harris. 'One of the greatest anti-heroes ever written' LEE CHILD 'Kerr leads us through the facts of history and the vagaries of human nature' TOM HANKS 'One of the greatest master story-tellers in English' ALAN FURST 1957, Munich. Bernie Gunther's latest move in a string of varied careers sees him working for an insurance company. It makes a kind of sense: both cops and insurance companies have a vested interest in figuring out when people are lying to them, and Bernie has a lifetime of experience to call on. Sent to Athens to investigate a claim from a fellow German for a sunken ship, Bernie takes an instant dislike to the claimant. When he discovers the ship in question once belonged to a Greek Jew deported to Auschwitz, he is convinced the sinking was no accident but an act of vengeance. And so Bernie is once again drawn inexorably back to the dark history of the Second World War, and the deportation of the Jews of Salonika - now Thessaloniki. As Europe prepares to move on to a more united future with Germany as a partner rather than an enemy, at least one person in Greece is ready neither to forgive nor forget. And, deep down, Bernie thinks they may have a point.

A follow up to his "breakneck" (Publishers Weekly, starred review) MemoRandom, this gripping new thriller from the internationally bestselling author Anders de la Motte takes you deep inside the world of police intelligence: a world of secrecy, betrayal, and deadly competition, where one second you're on top, and the next you're fighting for your life. David Sarac of the Stockholm Police Force's Intelligence Unit, weeks after his violent encounter with the enigmatic high-level informant, Janus, is recuperating from his gunshot wounds. While the hunt for the elusive Janus has ended, the secrets and lies linger. The mysteries of that night deepen when David's nurse slips him an anonymous letter; the writer wants to swap secrets with David to bring someone powerful to justice after a betrayal at the Janus shoot-out. David's only clues are two photos enclosed with the letter: a snapshot of a happy family and another of a dead woman sprawled over the hood of a car... In this thrilling sequel, de la Motte again crafts a breathtaking "thriller of international class" (Norra Skane).

In this spine-tingling thriller--the dark offspring of The Lives of Others and The Fugitive--an architect races against the clock to clear his wife of his brother's murder. Architect Peter Crookham is running late for a dinner party with his estranged journalist brother and his gorgeous German wife, Mariana. He enters his home to discover his brother viciously stabbed to death and his wife covered in blood and clutching a knife, in a nearly catatonic state. Refusing to accept that Mariana could be responsible for Andy's death, Peter vows to clear her name. As he begins to search the past for clues, Peter soon learns that Andy had been looking into Mariana's murky past in Germany, and had even traveled to Berlin to piece together some facts about her childhood. Anxious for answers, Peter retraces his brother's steps in East Berlin--and finds himself caught in a web of intrigue involving violent remnants of the former East German security service, the feared STASI. With a split narrative that alternates back and forth between Peter's current hunt for the truth and the horrendous realities of life in communist East Berlin in the 1970s and 1980s, Blood Relative asks the question: How well do we really know the ones we love?

"Literate crime thrillers don't get much better than this."

—Publishers Weekly (starred) on L'Assassin Peter Steiner has thoroughly impressed sophisticated thriller mavens everywhere with his critically acclaimed novels featuring ex-CIA operative Louis Morgon. Now, in what is indubitably Steiner's finest book to date, Louis attempts to solve a mystery with roots going back as far as World War II. When Louis purchases a rundown house in Saint-Leon-sur-Dême, he quickly goes to work fixing it up. However, during the renovations, he discovers evidence of a long forgotten crime hidden beneath the floorboards. Unable to leave a good mystery unsolved, he enlists the help of his friend Renard, a French cop, and sets out to discover exactly what happened in this small French village during the Nazi occupation. As Louis and Renard search for the answer to a decades-old question, they encounter an unforgettable cast of characters, including Simon, a Jew from Berlin who leads a French resistance cell, a Nazi colonel who is not at all what he seems, and Marie Piano, whose bravery is unmatched. Soon, Louis is pulled into the secrets and lies of the past as he begins to call into question the very nature of guilt and innocence in times of war. Compelling, arresting, and complex, The Resistance is a thriller that will appeal to fans of John le Carré and Graham Greene.

THE PRESIDENT For President Jonathan Bennett, reaching the White House was the realisation of lifetime's ambition. He's leader of the free world and the most powerful man on earth. But public support for his administration is wearing thin. And if the truth about his rise to the top was exposed it would bury him. THE ASSASSIN As a boy, Evan Smoak was taken from his foster home and inducted into a top secret Cold War programme. Codenamed Orphan X, he was trained to become a lethal weapon, then despatched around the world to do whatever was required to keep his country safe. When Evan discovered the mission was rotten to the core he got out, using his skills to hide in plain sight while helping those left behind by mainstream justice. THE RECKONING But Evan knows about the President's dark past. And that's dangerous knowledge. To save himself and his country, Evan must ask himself one simple question- how do you kill the most well-protected man on earth? And, when he knows you're coming for him, how do you stay alive long enough to try? One thing is certain- a desperate call for help from another unfortunate in urgent need of Evan's protection isn't going to make it any easier ... Breathtakingly bold, brilliantly accomplished and blisteringly fast-paced, Out of the Dark is The Day of the Jackal for the twenty-first century.
