If you thought death was the end...you'd be dead wrong. Life was barely manageable after my mom was murdered three years ago. I wasn't sure what my purpose was anymore. But then on my twenty-first birthday, I drank a little too much and fell from the roof of my nine-story apartment building. I died. Then... I un-died. Enter Hayden, my really bossy (and hot) guardian angel whose duty is to train me to be the next "Soldier of Light." Sound fun? Well, it's not. I save dead people, helping them move on to the World of Light. And to make matters even worse, they are all troubled souls stuck in the Dark Realm with the devil and his army of demonic creatures. They roam my city's streets at night, waiting for me to screw up. The Afterlife is one of Death's best kept secrets, and I'm living proof. I'm pretty sure I'm the wrong person for this job, despite what Hayden thinks. Guess I'm stuck saving the dead.  "Paranormal elements, action, drama, friendship, struggles, mystery, life and death, romance....all put together nicely, and driven by a strong female MC."
